Chopard celebrates the season of love and union with the new, limited-edition Happy Sport

Chopard, the renowned Swiss jeweller and watchmaker has once again collaborated with The Hour Glass to create a new, limited-edition of its iconic watch collection – the Happy Sport; for the much-celebrated season of love and union.

Happy Sport, synonymous with the perfect combination of chic and playfulness, has added another fun piece to its extensive collection. This third collaboration, after the successful partnership for the previous editions, sees the sleek and luxurious version of its steel and white ceramic design, with the signature mobile diamond charm.

The key element in this novel, limited-edition watch is the amusing mobile charm encased within, akin to the mobile diamonds that the Happy Sport watch collection is reputed for. The design, inspired by the nuance of childhood sweethearts evokes the lovely reminiscence of innocence and union. Fully diamond-encrusted, the 'couple' charm signifies the wonderful journey one shares with a loved one, creating joyful memories that transcend time.

Set against a pristine white canvas, with white dial and ceramic case, as well as a matching rubber strap, the new Happy Sport with mobile diamond-encrusted 'couple' charm comes in a limited-edition of 500 pieces for Valentine's Day 2010 and available exclusively at The Hour Glass.

Chopard Happy Sport – Valentine's Day 2010 special edition watch in white ceramic, stainless steel bezel and titanium case-back with engraving of limited-edition pieces. White dial with a mobile, 22 brilliant pave diamond-encrusted 'couple' charm. Quartz movement, water-resistant up to 30 metres. White rubber strap with steel buckle.
