- Cash and cash equivalents at $180.5 million

SINGAPORE, 22 May 2018: The Hour Glass Group, one of Asia's leading specialist luxury watch retailers, showed today that full year revenue amounted to $691.6 million while profit after taxation rose 2% to $50.7 million for the full year ended 31 March 2018 ("FY2018").

FY2018 Results

1. With the Group's year-on-year revenue remaining steady at $691.6 million in FY2018, profit before taxation edged 3% higher while profit after taxation rose by 2%. The Group continued to manage its business efficiently while enhancing its in-store customer experience. Group inventory decreased to $282.4 million at the end of FY2018.

2. In FY2018, the Group registered a gross margin of 24.2%, significantly higher from the 22.7% posted in FY2017. The Group reaped the benefits from its on-going business re-engineering that resulted in a notable improvement in the standards of its customer service delivery.

3. Mr Michael Tay, Co-Group Managing Director of The Hour Glass, said: "The interminable fluctuations taking place across the demand-and-supply current of luxury watches, as well as across the different geographies the Group operates in underscores the importance of staying agile and tuned to the marketplace. Our FY2018 results bears on nearly four decades of experience and a business strategy that has been calibrated to meet the expectations of the future luxury watch buyer."

4. The Group's balance sheet remains robust with consolidated net assets of $507.1 million with cash and cash equivalents of $180.5 million.

Outlook

5. Looking ahead, The Hour Glass believes consumer sentiment is expected to stay at current levels. In addition, it will continue operating its 38 boutiques in ten key cities throughout the Asia Pacific region while working to improve its retail network, brand portfolio and customer engagement and experience.

6. The Board of Directors recommends a dividend of 2.00 Singapore cents per share for FY2018 (FY2017: 2.00 cents per share).

7. Barring any unforeseen circumstances, the Group expects to remain profitable in FY2019.
